

BELFAST MEDIA FESTIVAL 2018
15th - 16th November

STUDENTS YOU ARE THE FUTURE!

For those thinking about making a career in the digital and media industries, the Belfast Media Festival remains a key and crucial date for your diaries.

The festival especially welcomes students and will offer you opportunities to enhance your career prospects.

This year we will be running an introduction to the sector at 11:00am on Thursday 15th November specifically for students. You must be on site and registered by 10:30am. Registration opens at 09:30am at the MAC Theatre.

Thursday 15 th November	SESSION	LOCATION
11:00 - 12:00	THE BEST JOBS YOU'VE NEVER HEARD OF.	Theatre 1
12:45 - 14:00	TWO MINUTE MASTERPIECE/LAUNCH OF TRUE NORTH SHORTS	Theatre 2
14:30 - 15:30	QUB PRESENTS: MIXED REALITY AND IMMERSIVE MEDIA: IS THIS THE FUTURE OF BROADCASTING?	Theatre 2

We will be running information and career workshops, you will also have the chance to hear from industry leaders and practitioners. We'll also be running a session, sponsored by Queen's University, about current and future career paths in this fast-changing industry.

There is also the chance to make good impressions, and to network with industry professionals. This is what festivals are all about.

At this early stage, we would like to offer students the chance to register for the festival - there are limited places for students.
